History, Culture, Gardens and Birds

MARCH 11 - 26, 2024

AN EXCLUSIVE TOUR ESCORTED BY C. COLSTON BURRELL

and
LE QUY MINH

STUNNING SCENERY * MAGNIFICENT BIODIVERSITY
EXCEPTIONAL CUISINE * RICH CULTURE

Join Garden and Nature Tours, Friendship Tours and the Minnesota State Horticultural Society in cooperation with Vietnam Birding to explore the cultural and natural diversity of one of Asia's fastest growing tourist destinations. From the Mekong River Delta to the haunting peaks of Halong Bay, we traverse the length of Vietnam to walk among scenic ruins, view spectacular scenery, discover colorful birds, sample delicious local cuisine and explore centuries-old cultural riches.

Meet Your Escort And Local Guide

C. Colston Burrell is a lifelong naturalist, plantsman, and gardener. An avid birder with a special interest in parrots, he has made many trips to Central and South America in search of new additions to his life list. When Cole is not birding, he is designing gardens for his clients, or tending his own 10-acre property designed to display the plants he loves while letting natural succession serve as head gardener. He shares his garden with birds, butterflies, and a wealth of amphibians. Cole escorts garden and natural history tours throughout the United States and abroad. The New World tropics are a favorite destination. He has traveled in Costa Rica, Panama, Venezuela, Ecuador, Brazil and Argentina, as well as Europe and Japan.

Le Quy Minh is a well-known figure in the conservation community in Vietnam and one of the most experienced birding guides in the region. Minh has been head guide at Vietnam Birding since 2007. He previously worked at Bach Ma National Park in central Vietnam for 12 years, heading the ecotourism and environmental education departments. Minh is the co-author with Richard Craik of the first comprehensive field guide to birds of Vietnam. Minh's extensive knowledge of Vietnam's birds, his charming manner and wicked sense of humor ensure that he is always in demand to guide Vietnam Birding clients.

Welcome To Vietnam

Vietnam is an incredibly rich travel destination – and there is so much to discover in this popular country. Join us for an immersive tour where we will delve into the cultural and natural history of this most populous country in Southeast Asia. From Ho Chi Minh City in the south to Hanoi in the north, we visit city markets, historic sites, temples, pagodas, national parks and scenic wonders.

On our tour we take a barge down the Mekong Delta, behold the sublime beauty of Halong Bay and explore the architecture of My Son and Hue. We will shop the colorful markets of Dalat and Hoi An and marvel at the colorful birds and lush forests of Cat Tien National Park.

One of the standout parts of visiting Vietnam is getting to taste the many fresh and delicious national dishes. We have ample opportunity to sample a variety of regional culinary specialties on this 16-day tour.

Vietnam's sublime landscapes, delicious cuisine, unique culture and stunning birdlife make for an amazing experience you're unlikely to forget.

Itinerary

Day 0      Sunday, March 10      Depart Home Cities

Depart home cities for flights to Ho Chi Minh City.

Day 1      Monday, March 11      Arrive Ho Chi Minh City

Arrive at Ho Chi Minh City's Tan Son Nhat International Airport and transfer to hotel. The rest of the day is at leisure. Overnight at Ho Chi Minh City. D

Day 2      Tuesday, March 12      Ho Chi Minh City to Mekong Delta

Today, after our included breakfast, we depart Ho Chi Minh City and head south to the Mekong Delta by road. Board the Bassac, a converted traditional wooden rice barge in Can Tho at Ninh Kieu Pier and enjoy a welcome drink with the crew. After checking in, lunch is served on board as the Bassac departs downstream on the Hau River toward Mang Thit. Relax on deck and take in the lush tropical scenery of the verdant delta waterways, fruit orchards and fields of sugar cane. A visit to a village on the banks of the River Mang Thit offers an opportunity to appreciate the way of life and hospitality of the locals. Returning to the Bassac, enjoy a pre-dinner drink on the upper deck as the sun sets before dinner. Overnight on board the Bassac at Mang Thit. B, L, R, D

Itinerary

Day 3 Wednesday, March 13 Mekong Delta to Ho Chi Minh City

Breakfast is served while the Bassac cruises towards Cai Be, crossing the Co Chien River and Co Lach Canal, sharing the waterway with rice and sand barges. Boat building yards where wooden boats are constructed in the traditional way and fruit drying facilities line the riverbanks. Transfer to a sampan to explore some quieter backwaters before visiting a local handicraft market at Cai Be and disembarking to travel back to Ho Chi Minh City mid-morning. Note: Depending on the day the cruise schedule may be reversed. In the afternoon visit some of Ho Chi Minh City's famous landmarks including the Notre Dame Cathedral, Old Saigon Post Office, the former Presidential Palace and Ben Thanh Market. Overnight at Ho Chi Minh City. B, L, D

By Diego Delso,

Day 4 Thursday, March 14 Ho Chi Minh City to Cat Tien

Leaving Ho Chi Minh City after breakfast, transfer by road the 150 km to Cat Tien National Park. Cat Tien National Park contains the largest remaining area of lowland tropical forest in southern Vietnam and an incredible diversity of birds and mammals. Endangered birds found at Cat Tien include Germain's Peacock-pheasant, Green Peafowl and the elusive Orange-necked Partridge. Overnight at Cat Tien National Park. B, L, D

Itinerary

Day 5      Friday, March 15

Cat Tien National Park

A full day for birding at Cat Tien National Park. There are excellent trails starting right at the park headquarters. For areas further afield such as Crocodile Lake park jeeps are used. The 5 km walk through semi-evergreen forest to Crocodile Lake can be good for the near-endemic Germain's Peacock-pheasant and Blue-rumped & Bar-bellied Pittas while the beautiful Siamese Fireback can often be seen on an early morning drive to the start of the Crocodile Lake trail. Among the many other avian treats to be found at Cat Tien are Green-legged Partridge, Asian Woollyneck, Lesser Adjutant, White-bellied, Great Slaty, Pale-headed, Black-and-buff & Heart-spotted Woodpeckers, three species of broadbill and the Indochinese-endemic Grey-faced Tit-Babbler. The mammal list includes Leopard Cat, Lesser Mousedeer, Gaur and three beautiful primates, Black-shanked Douc Langur, Silvered Langur and Buff-cheeked Gibbon. Overnight at Cat Tien National Park. B, L, D

Day 6      Saturday, March 16

Cat Tien National Park to Dalat

A final morning of birding at Cat Tien National Park before heading up Highway 20 to the cooler climes of Dalat in the afternoon with a stop en route to visit a tea plantation. Transfer to hotel on arrival at Dalat. Overnight at Dalat. B, L, D

Itinerary

Day 7-9 Sunday - Tuesday, March 17-19 Dalat

A full three days to explore the former French hill station of Dalat, home to market gardens, flower nurseries and endemic birds. Located at 1,500 m above sea-level Dalat's temperate climate is perfect for growing flowers and vegetables that are exported around the world. Dalat Market is a photographer's paradise with its colorful stalls of flowers, vegetables and exotic fruits. Overnight at Dalat. B, L, D

Itinerary

Day 10 Wednesday, March 20 Dalat to Hoi An via Danang

Depart for Dalat Airport after an early breakfast to take the short morning flight to Danang. On arrival in Danang transfer the 25 km to Hoi An by road. Hoi An was a major trading port in the 17th and 18th centuries and its architecture and relaxed lifestyle has changed little over the years. In the afternoon take a walking tour of the ancient town centre to visit former merchants' houses, the 400-year-old Japanese Covered Bridge, a Chinese communal hall and the colorful market. Some of the merchant's houses and temples have courtyards with ornamental gardens. Overnight at Hoi An. B, L, D

Day 11 Thursday, March 21 Hoi An

Hoi An is known throughout Vietnam for its wonderfully unique cuisine and a morning cooking class is a great way to discover some of Hoi An's culinary delights. The morning starts with a visit to the local market to buy ingredients, followed by a short boat trip along the Hoi An River to the school, where students are treated to demonstrations of Hoi An specialties before being let loose in the kitchen. In the afternoon explore the countryside around Hoi An visiting an organic farm and vegetable garden. Overnight at Hoi An. B, L, D

Itinerary

Day 12 Friday, March 22 Hoi An to Hue

Depart after breakfast for a half-day trip to visit the capital and religious centre of the former Champa Kingdom, My Son. Here, 40 km south-west of Hoi An, in a lush green valley, are dozens of red brick towers and sanctuaries dating from between the seventh and thirteenth centuries. Visit the museum and the holy site then return to Hoi An and continue north to the former imperial capital of Hue. In the late afternoon visit the elaborate mausoleums of emperors Tu Duc and Khai Dinh on the banks of the Perfume River. Overnight at Hue. B, L, D

Day 13 Saturday, March 23 Hue

A morning cultural tour of Hue takes in the manicured gardens of the Imperial Citadel from where the Nguyen Dynasty ruled between 1802 and 1945 and Thien Mu Pagoda with its seven-tiered tower. In the afternoon visit some of Hue's traditional garden houses. Overnight at Hue. B, L, D

Day 14 Sunday, March 24 Hue to Hanoi

Transfer to Hue Airport after breakfast for the morning flight to Hanoi, the modern day capital of Vietnam and transfer to hotel on arrival. In the afternoon enjoy a city tour of this unique Asian capital, a city of temples, lakes and tree-lined boulevards. Overnight at Hanoi. B, L, D

Itinerary

Day 15 Monday, March 25 Hanoi to Halong Bay

Leave Hanoi after breakfast for the two-hour drive to Halong Bay, a UNESCO World Heritage Site and one of the natural wonders of the world. Board the Bhaya, a luxurious oriental cruise boat for the ultimate Halong Bay experience. After a sumptuous buffet lunch enjoy the wonderful natural scenery while relaxing on deck, explore some of the spectacular caves on a shore excursion, enjoy kayaking, spa treatments or a cooking demonstration. Dinner and overnight on board the Bhaya. B, L, D

Day 16 Tuesday, March 26 Halong Bay to Hanoi. Depart Hanoi

Wake up to fresh coffee and a wholesome breakfast or join one of the early morning Tai Chi classes that are held daily on the sundeck before breakfast. Disembark at Tuan Chau Quay mid-morning and transfer to Hanoi by road. On arrival at Hanoi transfer to Noi Bai International Airport for departure flight back to the States or continue to Cambodia. ## Kon Ker and Beng Mealea

A full day visiting the ruins of the seldom-visited Khmer temples at Kon Ker and Beng Mealea. Enjoy the beauty of the ruins and learn the history of these extraordinary temples. The dry deciduous and semi-evergreen forest here offer excellent birding opportunities. We may see species such as Rufous-winged Buzzard, White-rumped Pygmy-falcon, Collared Falconet, Black-headed & White-bellied Woodpeckers, Velvet-fronted & Burmese Nuthatches and Indochinese Bushlark. Return to Siem Reap in the late afternoon. Overnight at Siem Reap. B, L, D
